John Barclay, Dorothy Finch share Stanhope accolades

In a break with tradition, two individuals have been named Stanhope Citizens of the Year.

Dorothy Finch and John Barclay were presented with the award at the annual Stanhope Christmas party held at the Firefighters' Community Hall on Saturday.

The annual event, sponsored by the municipality, honours the many volunteers who serve on municipal boards, committees and the fire department as well as municipal employees.

In presenting the awards, Reeve Harry Davis paid tribute to the recipients for their many years of community service.

Dorothy Finch was chosen because of her past efforts in organizing the Stanhope Fun Day and her work with senior citizens and in the many activities of St. Peter's Anglican Church, Davis said.

John Barclay was also honoured for his volunteer work with the church as well as his continuing service with the Recreation Committee. Davis pointed out Barclay was instrumental in establishing the Stanhope Clothes Depot to assist needy families and victims of fire.

In commenting on the work of the citizens of the year and the other volunteers in attendance, Councillor Ann Barker expressed her appreciation to the gathering, noting the township is fortunate to have a strong sense of community spirit that is more evident in the community than in many other areas of the county.

Insurance hikes concern County

County Council members have added their voices to the growing protest against escalating liability insurance premiums charged to municipalities.

At the regular meeting of Council on Wednesday, a resolution was passed unanimously supporting a petition by the Municipality of Dysart et al to the provincial government objecting to the astronomical increase in liability insurance.

The resolution, passed by Dysart council on November 7, requested, "The Province of Ontario be petitioned to curb the astronomical increase to the cost of municipal liability insurance by legislative changes to protect the municipality, its employees and officers in the enforcing of bylaws, including inspectors, the provision of information with regard to official plan and zoning information when acting in good faith. In other suits involving sewage, water works and other municipal services, liability must be limited to cases of clear negligence."

In passing the resolution, Dysart council was reacting to a 100% increase in liability premiums from $27,000 in 1984 to $53,000 this year. The increase reflects a trend across the country that affects municipalities and school boards.

For example, the Haliburton County Board of Education had an increase in liability premiums of 100% over the past year.

The escalating costs in insurance coverage are due mainly to the trend to higher awards in personal injury cases. Many municipal officials point to the case of a young man who was injured in a motorcycle accident in Brampton Park. Totally disabled, he was awarded in excess of $7,000,000 by the Supreme Court.

A comparison of similar cases over the past 15 years shows awards have increased by an average of 450% a year. The decisions by the Supreme Court have sent shockwaves through municipalities across the country.

Many municipal governments are considering banding together to insure themselves not only because of the escalating liability premiums, but also because many insurance companies are reluctant to provide coverage. This past week the Canadian Federation of Municipalities formed a task force to study the problem.

No doubt the committee will be made aware of the Dysart et al resolution which is being circulated to all municipalities in the province seeking support.

Hall's Lake study could be delayed

Cottage owners on Halls Lake in Stanhope Township will have to wait their turn before a water quality study can be carried out.

During the past summer, many residents of the lake requested a study be conducted to determine the impact on the environment of a proposed 65 site trailer park.

Under pressure from the residents, Stanhope Council passed an interim control bylaw freezing the development for a period of one year or until results of a water quality study are known. In order to ensure an impartial study, Council decided the program should be carried out by the Ministry of Environment.

In response to the request by the township, officials of the Ministry have pointed out all lakes in the township are under consideration based on a request by

Airport changes approved

Stanhope Council has agreed to changes in the proposed development of Stanhope Airport and has directed the consulting firm of Marshall, Maclin, Monahan to proceed with the design of the runway.

Council was responding to a letter from J.H. Scott transportation director of the Ministry of Transportation and Communications recommending the runway be realigned one degree to the south and reduced in length from 780 metres to 765 metres.

The changes in the runway design will eliminate the necessity of easements on property west of Airport

Road and will result in a reduction in construction costs.

The change in the terms of reference has increased the design costs however from an estimate of $19,500 to $22,000. The design project is eligible for an 80% subsidy from the MTC.

Council was also informed a recent purchase of land adjacent to the airport has received a subsidy to cover 80% of the $6,000 purchase price.

Councillor C. Jock Mavor was the only member of council to refrain from voting on the recommendation the design proceed stating he wanted more time to study the issue.

County Council appoints 1986 committees

County Council has approved the recommendations of the steering committee for appointments to 1986 boards and committees.

In announcing the choices made by the seven member steering committee, the chairman, Murray Fearrey, said the committee had considered past experience of the members, the location of their township within the county and their municipality's share of the county budget.

The decisions had been difficult because there are six new members on council, Fearrey said.

The steering committee also had less members from which to choose. Under a formula approved by the last county council, as allowed under the Municipal Act, townships with less than 2500 electors are allowed only one representative on County Council. Consequently Snowdon, Cardiff and Monmouth no longer have a deputy reeve on the county body.

Aside from personnel changes, the size of the Roads Committee has been reduced from six to five members and in a break with tradition, Sherbourne et al Deputy Reeve Don Shortreed will serve on the Management committee that is normally made up of Reeves, Fearrey said. The appointment was made to prove a liaison between the Management committee and the Finance committee.

Describing committees as the, "Soul of this organization," Warden Harry Davis called for good attendance at all committee meetings.

The following outlines the membership of each committee. Except where indicated the appointments expire on December 31, 1986.

Chamber will sell insurance

The Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce is now offering its members an insurance plan covering life, disability, drug and dental benefits. The program was approved at the last meeting of the Chamber's board of directors.

The board also approved the appointment of Shawn Hagerman of Mutal Financial Services as the marketing agent for the plan. The Chamber called for tenders before awarding the contract to Mr. Hagerman, who is also president of the Chamber.

The group insurance plan is one which is offered nation-wide through Chambers of Commerce. The plan is available exclusively to Chamber members. According to Mr. Hagerman, the rates offered by the insurance plan are competitive with others being offered. He plans to discuss the details of the plan with each member of the Chamber.

Minden W.I. Christmas party

On Wednesday afternoon December 18 there was a meeting of the Minden Women's Institute at the United Church Hall with Mrs. C. Lacey welcoming us.

After the usual opening, reports were given. Mrs. W. Moore reported sending 15 cards since the November meeting. Collections for Card Fund and Pennies for Friendship were taken. The Secretary read the letter from District Home Economist Mary Ann Yaromich about courses being offered. This will be taken care of at the next meeting. The business being done, we closed with W.I. Grace and God Save the Queen.

The Roll Call of Christmas verse had 29 members and 3 guests present and everyone received a candy cane from President Lacey. Also several recitations were given by Alice Todd.

With Mrs. D. Cox at the piano and led by Mrs. C. Wilson the group joined in Christmas Carols. Gifts were given from the Exchange and Secret Pal tables. All then enjoyed the buffet and a cup of tea and a social half hour followed.

As the ladies left, all wished everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Members had turned in articles for the Christmas Cheer Baskets and these were delivered to the fire-hall.

Next meeting will be at the Library Cultural Centre on January 15 at 2 p.m. with all ladies welcome.

Finding a special someone in the audience, members of the Kindergarten classes at Archie Stouffer Elementary School point out their particular favourites as they sing "I love you" from the song "Skinamarinkidinkadoo". The song was one of many presented during the school's Christmas concert Wednesday evening. Students from the kindergarten to grade 5 classes presented an entertaining evening of music and skits to a packed hall.

Barker protests appointment as Stanhope sets committees

The reappointment of Ann Barker to the recreation committee resulted in a brief protest at the regular meeting of Stanhope Council on December 11.

When Reeve Harry Davis announced his choices for membership on the various municipal committees, Barker objected to, "Being stuck on the recreation committee." She has served on the committee for the past three years. "This is a case of women being put in their place," she commented.

ed. She said members of council should have an opportunity to serve on other committees to gain experience in other areas. "I don't want to be stuck on the recreation committee all the time," she commented.

Following Davis' announcement of the appointment of himself, Jim Harrison, Clerk-Treasurer Gerald Bain and the road superintendent Harold Barjarow to the roads committee. Barker said she felt all members of council should serve on that committee. "Some of the expenditures on the roads committee are very steep. All council members should be considering those expenditures," she said.

Reeve Davis responded by noting all municipal expenditures must eventually be approved by the council as a whole. Councillor Jim Harrison told Barker having all council members on the committee would be unfair to the road superintendent, who would have to telephone each member of council when problems arose. "If there are only two members (of council) on the committee it is much easier for Harold," he commented.

Councillor Jock Mavor suggested the reappointment of Barker to the recreation committee was a reflection of the excellence of the work she has done, arguing it was not a case of a woman being put in her place. He did agree that membership of the committees should be switched around on a yearly basis.

Reeve Harry Davis agreed with the suggestion, adding he would keep it in mind when he selects the committees next year.

The members of the 1986 committees are:

Recreation, Parks and Community Centre: Ann Barker, Jim Harrison.

Airport: C. Jock Mavor.

Fire Department: Elvin Johnson, C. Jock Mavor.

Board of Management: Elvin Johnson.

Library: Ann Barker.

Dumps: C. Jock Mavor.

Staanworth Housing: Jim Harrison, Gerald Bain.

Hall's Lake study

Council in 1983. That request places Stanhope in eighth place on a list of areas in the province who have requested water quality studies.

The ministry has been conducting Cottage Pollution Control programs since 1970. The purpose of the program is to examine and evaluate all existing sewage disposal systems on recreational lakes and to ensure faulty systems are repaired. The program was conducted on Little Boshkung Lake and Twelve Mile Lake in 1984.

The ministry has indicated due to the limited number of seasonal employees who are trained to carry out the program, the studies are limited to 1000 establishments a year.

While the ministry has not set a date for the study on Halls Lake the township has been notified the lake and others in the area are being considered for future programs. However, as has been pointed out by ministry officials, the pollution control program concerns existing systems only and would not apply to a proposed development.

Another attraction

The official opening of the Haliburton County Nordic Trail system December 14 marked another important milestone in the development of the tourism potential in the Highlands. The event was also a tribute to the many years of hard work, and at times seemingly elusive dreams, of the members of this county's Nordic Trail Association.

Starting with a few scattered existing trails and a knowledge that the sport of cross-country skiing was growing quickly, local enthusiasts were able to convince the necessary government officials that creating a linked trail system in the Highlands was a worthwhile project. With the help of many volunteers, the group has now seen the important first phase of this massive undertaking become a reality.

The cross-country ski trails become another important attraction this area can offer during the winter, a season which, not so long ago, was practically a write-off as far as tourism was concerned. Along with the excellent snowmobile trail system already in place, this new facility will make the Highlands an even more attractive place to be in winter.

Fortunate

In the hustle of this festive season we sometimes lose sight of how fortunate Canadians are. Presents piled high beneath the tree, stores jammed with eager shoppers, and an abundant supply of food make us one of the luckiest nations in the world. There are individuals in our community who are less fortunate, but even their situation is a bountiful one when compared with the lot of many elsewhere in the world.

Christmas is a time of celebration, family traditions and sharing. As we enjoy the season's festivities, let us not forget how fortunate we are and remember those here and beyond our shores who have less than us.

Autumn memories.

Federation of Ontario Naturalists

It's Christmas time once again, and in parking lots across the nation, row upon row of fresh-cut Christmas trees lie in wait for Christmas shoppers. Despite the in-roads of tinsel-and-plastic artificial trees, natural evergreens at $20 and up are still the most popular centrepiece for Christmas celebrations.

If you select a natural tree, don't feel guilty about despoiling the natural environment, since almost all Christmas trees are now grown commercially. However, you can also make Christmas an occasion to help improve the environment, with a little thought. As a small beginning, leaving your discarded Christmas tree beside your bird feeder for the winter can provide welcome shelter for your chickadees and nuthatches.

Some naturalists also decorate a second tree, preferably a live one in their yard, to share Christmas with the birds. Chains of popcorn and peanuts, suet balls stuffed with seeds, pieces of stale cake and cookies, and caches of sunflower seeds poked into the branches and crevices can all provide a feast on a cold Christmas morn.

You might also want to consider a live Christmas tree, that can be planted after the festive season. Of necessity, live trees are usually smaller, since the potted roots are heavy. A small white pine is usually cheaper and easier to handle than the traditional spruce. When the potted tree is brought inside, it should be watered well, but make sure that the pot has drainage holes so that the roots are not damaged by constant saturation.

Hot, dry houses are very hard on live trees, so try to keep your tree in a cool spot, and mist it frequently. If you are careful, a tree can be kept indoors for several weeks without damage, but five to seven days is a better rule of thumb. After Christmas, plant the tree in a hole you prepared before freeze-up. Baking your new tree with snow over the roots will likely also help to protect it from frost damage.

In the rural and northern areas of Ontario, cutting your own Christmas tree is an annual family tradition. Balsam fir or cedar are a better choice than spruce in this case, since they hold their needles more tightly. One friend annually scouts the surrounding woods for a wind-thrown fir, so that he can harvest the top six feet or so. He ends up with a dense, cone-laden Christmas tree, without having to rob the forest of any of its living resources.

To all citizens of Anson, Hindon and Minden:

Once again it is the festive season when you and your families will be getting together to celebrate the Yuletide season.

We sincerely want you all to have a most enjoyable and happy holiday, our only wish is that you make it a safe and joyous occasion. Check all your Christmas lights and make very sure they are in good condition. If you are having a natural tree be sure it sits in a container of water to keep it moist, make sure that your heating system is in a safe operating condition, and last but not least, never leave your children unattended at any time.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Stopping the carnage

- by John Eakins, MPP -

It is the season of tradition, and a tradition that has developed recently involves the appearance of police roadside breathalyzer patrols. While these spot checks are a welcome deterrent to those who drink and drive, we should remember that drinking and driving is a dangerous practice at any time of the year.

In 1983 I presented a resolution in the legislature asking that a full study be initiated to examine the use and abuse of alcohol. A healthy debate followed at Queen's Park, but a much larger, more public debate is now underway, which I think will produce a more informed public.

In 1984, more than 550 people were killed and 27,000 people were injured in Ontario accidents where alcohol was a factor. The cost to taxpayers has been estimated at more than 200 million dollars. These statistics, however, do not begin to take into account the suffering they represent for the thousands of families hurt by these accidents.

Along with proposed new penalties for drivers who do so while intoxicated, the Minister of Transportation and Communications has introduced the photo driver licensing program, which will make it easier to apprehend suspected drivers who continue to drive with someone else's licence.

This program demonstrates that the government is prepared to deal seriously with the chronic drinking driver. Drivers, whose history suggests a problem with alcohol, or any other patterns of behaviour which pose a serious risk to others on the road will be subject to suspension for an indefinite period.

As well, information in the Ontario Driver's Handbook and the written driver's examination will feature an increase in focus on the hazards of drinking and driving. I am particularly pleased with that decision, because the heavy toll that the abuse of alcohol places on society will only decrease through education and increased awareness of the potential hazards. So as we get together with friends and relatives at this special time of year, I want to extend best wishes to everyone in Victoria - Haliburton, and hope that you enjoy a safe and happy holiday season.

The de Havilland sale

- by Bill Scott, MP -

When we took over responsibility for de Havilland after last September, several issues were quite clear. Despite good products and dedicated employees, years of Government involvement in the company had delayed important decisions and wasted management time on the red tape involved with government bureaucracy, time which should have been used to build up the company.

de Havilland was at a critical point. They lacked the wide product base necessary to ensure a stable and vibrant company. New products, new investment and most importantly new directions were needed. Sales of the Dash 7 were slow, sales of the Twin Otter were down to only a few per year and the Dash was in a highly competitive sales market.

You and I, as Canadian taxpayers, had been exposed to enormous risks and huge losses. This situation provided the basis for the decision to privatise the company. We set out to find a new owner who could do a number of things.

1. Provide a broader base and stronger potential for the future growth and development of de Havilland and the industry in Canada which would ensure long-term job security and job growth.

2. Have the capacity to withstand fluctuations in the marketplace so that the operation and its employees would not be jeopardised every time the market took a turn for the worse.

3. Dedicate itself to increased research and development activity to develop new products.

4. Make a positive contribution to the Canadian economy.

5. Provide additional expertise in the aerospace industry.

Following almost a year of intensive efforts, out of 130 prospective buyers, three candidates to purchase de Havilland emerged. The advice of several financial advisors was that the Boeing offer was consistent with our goals of privatisation and represented the best offer available. The Board of Directors of the Canada Development Investment Corporation concurred with the advice and unanimously recommended the sale of de Havilland to Boeing. The Privatisation Task Force of Cabinet reviewed the details of the proposed purchase and other available offers and agreed that the Boeing offer was the most acceptable.

The Boeing offer has many important features, purchase price aside, including promises to: keep de Havilland in Ontario; pay royalties on existing properties; assign de Havilland a world product mandate with respect to its commuter products; develop new activity at de Havilland and work with Canadian suppliers; conduct new R&D; develop new products and make maximum use of existing facilities and manpower at de Havilland; and develop the company defence related production capacity.

These features are designed to ensure the future of development of the Canadian aerospace industry as a fully capable producer of aircraft in the de Havilland tradition of excellence, backed by the strength of the Boeing Corporation. It represents a much better opportunity than possible under continued government ownership and fully meets the goals of divestiture. The future of the company and its employees and indeed the whole Canadian aerospace industry will be much brighter because of this sale.

Checks are helping submitted

On November 30, two Traffic Check-Stop Teams were formed within the Peterborough O.P.P. District to assist our ten detachments in the apprehension of drinking drivers. The two teams consisted of five officers are scheduled to operate in each detachment area.

It is our hope the public will see the efforts of our members as a timely and important countermeasure to those who decide to drink and drive. We have long recognized it is a small majority of drivers who ignore the public concern against drinking drivers.

It is encouraging to report a significant drop in the number of persons arrested for criminal code drinking offences in the first two weeks of check-stop operations.

Comparison of Check-Stop Activities

1. No. of vehicles checked: (1985) 10,124, (1984) 12,280.

2. No. of persons charged with Criminal Code Driving offences related to alcohol: (1985) 18, (1984) 65.

3. No. of 12 hour suspensions issued as a result of "Warn" on the alert unit: (1985) 51, (1984) 113.

4. No. of Liquor Licence Act violations resulting from check-stops: (1985) 36, (1984) 56.

While we have traditionally focused attention on the impaired driver, the high number of drivers who do not drink and drive have received little credit.

To the 10,055 drivers who have passed through the checkstops that have not been drinking, we thank you. We also thank those who have used the designated driver system, those who used taxi or public transportation, and those who let the non-drinker drive them home.

We are also thankful to the individuals, organizations, and the media that have helped the Ontario Provincial Police impact the message that Drinking and Driving is not an acceptable combination at any time, and particularly through this Christmas season.

May your festive season be a safe and happy one for us all.

WANT TO APPEAL YOUR ASSESSMENT?

You still have time to appeal your 1985 assessment if you feel your home or business property has been improperly assessed.

Your assessment is important because the amount of property tax you pay depends on it, in that the assessed value of your property is multiplied by your municipal and school mill rate to determine your 1986 property taxes.

Notices of Assessment have been mailed to property owners and tenants whose assessments have changed since last year. Open houses have been held in your area to answer questions and amend assessment information if necessary. Open house dates and locations were announced in a previous advertisement.

The Assessment Roll has now been delivered to your municipality for the purposes of calculating the amount of taxes you must pay on your property in 1986. For information on your assessment, the Assessment Roll is now available for review at your Municipal Office during regular business hours. If you feel your property has been improperly assessed, and you have not yet made your appeal known, you still have until January 7, 1986 to deliver or mail an appeal to the Assessment Review Board. And remember, even if you did not receive a Notice of Assessment, you still have the right to appeal.

Appeal deadline—January 7, 1986

The Assessment Review Board is an impartial body reporting to the Attorney General of Ontario, which provides you with an additional opportunity to have your assessment reviewed if, in your opinion, it is not fair and equitable with similar properties in your area. The Review Board is more informal and relaxed than a regular court of law. You may present your own case, retain a lawyer or ask a relative or friend to speak as your agent.

To help you in filing your appeal, Notice of Appeal forms are available from the Assessment Review Board, your Regional Assessment Office or your Municipal Office. As well, you can use the reverse side of a Notice of Assessment or write a letter stating the property address and roll number, together with your reasons for appealing. Appeals should be forwarded to the Regional Registrar of the Assessment Review Board listed below.

Santa comes early for Minden Monarchs

The Minden Monarchs presented themselves with some early Christmas presents by winning two games in a row over the past week.

On Friday, December 20 at Minden arena, the Juveniles doubled Sunderland 6-3 then romped to a 19-3 victory over Bewdley the following day. Faced by excellent goaltending from Vince Duchene for the Monarchs and Pat Cook for Sunderland, neither team was able to score until late in the first period when Dennis McKee knocked in a pass from Greg Newell. The Monarch's lead was increased to two goals when Boomer Stamp swept in on left wing and fed Jeff Howe in front of the net. Two minutes later Scot Hamilton picked a pass from Bernie Upton out of midair and flipped the puck over the Sunderland goalie to give Minden a 3-0 lead.

At the 9:04 mark of the period, Sunderland finally responded with a goal to narrow the Monarch's lead.

With less than six minutes left in the frame, Bernie Upton scored through a tangle of players in front of the net after picking off a pass from Boomer Stamp. Sunderland ended the period with their second goal.

At the 7:07 mark of the final frame, Jeff Howe notched his second marker of the game with an assist from Boomer Stamp to give Minden a three goal lead. Two minutes later, Sunderland narrowed the lead again on a penalty play. At the 5:15 mark of the final period Scot Hamilton rounded out the scoring with a quick shot from the face-off that fooled the Sunderland goaltender. The assist went to Gord Wood.

The game was relatively penalty-free. The Monarchs were handed ten minor penalties and Sunderland picked up eight minors and a game misconduct.

Monarch goalie Vince Duchene scrambles to his feet after deflecting a shot during a game played Friday in Minden. Duchene's performance was a key factor in the Monarch's 6-3 victory over Sunderland.

Bewdley bombardment

For the second time this month, the Monarchs went on a scoring spree against Bewdley.

On December 6 Minden overpowered the visitors 18-3, then on Saturday the Monarchs skated to a resounding victory in Bewdley outpointing the host club 19-3.

The Monarchs wasted little time in establishing their dominance, scoring within the first minute of play. After notching five goals in the first period and seven in the second, the Monarchs built up a 17-0 lead before Bewdley finally ruined Kevin Smith's shutout.

The teams traded two goals apiece in the final four minutes of the game to give the Monarchs the 19-3 win.

Doug Schell led the way for the winners with five goals and an assist. Lennie Johnston continued his strong play with three goals and six assists. Captain Jeff Howe also made his presence known, scoring twice and assisting on six of the Minden markers.

Bernie Upton also picked up a hat trick and assisted on one goal. Other pointgetters were Barry Boice with two goals including one unassisted marker and a pair of assists, Scot Hamilton a goal and four assists, Greg Newell a goal and four assists, Daryl Ward an unassisted goal and two assists, David Schell a single goal and single assists to Gord Wood, Craig Burk and John Wells.

The Monarchs will be facing their arch rivals Fenelon Falls at Minden arena on Friday, December 27. Game time is 8 p.m.

around the county town

Call 286-1288 — 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Fans of Jeanne Sears will be happy to hear that Jeanne has decided to come out of retirement and keep us all up to date with happenings around the town. Jeanne's first column will be December 31 and any news you have to pass on should be called to her at 286-1538 no later than 9 p.m. on Sundays. We will also be happy to accept your news items here at The Times, 286-1288. We would like to welcome Jeanne back to the fold and hope you, our readers, will co-operate with her as you did in the past.

The Arcadia Lodge of Minden hosted a well attended Christmas party Thursday evening for members, their wives and guests. Organized by the lodge Master, Gord Monk, his wife Donna and Steve and Bonnie-Lee Berry, over fifty attended the evening at the Minden firehall. Entertainment was provided by Murray and Shirley Davis, Don White and Earl Cooper, while Harry Hobden and Sinc Nesbitt kept the dancers moving briskly through their paces while calling and instructing the square dancing and Jim Congdon did an excellent job decorating the hall.

We were very sorry to hear that Les Northey had to be rushed to Wellesley Hospital in Toronto Friday evening. It's bad enough being sick but somehow having to be away from your family at Christmas makes it even worse. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Les, hope you are home soon and that your birthday on Boxing Day is a nice one.

Card party winners at St. Paul's Anglican church on Thursday included Jeanne Sears (most lone hand on a cut) Gladys Wruth and Ada Tyrrell took the ladies prizes while the men's prizes were awarded to Esther Lee (on a cut) and Charlotte O'Neill.

Friends of Mrs. Eleanor Pye will be happy to hear that she is recuperating nicely from her recent illness.

Parents and friends were delighted Wednesday evening at Archie Stouffer School when the youngsters entertained them during the annual Christmas concert. Appreciation to the teachers and the children who work so hard to make these events such happy and entertaining occasions.

Another teacher who is much appreciated is Rick Vaughan of the HHSS Music department. His guiding skills were much in evidence during the Annual Christmas Concert at the high school Thursday evening. A large enthusiastic audience shared the enjoyment of the evening when the school's three bands and various solo artists performed. A definite treat for all who attended.

Minden Agricultural Society annual meeting and dinner at 6 p.m. Wednesday, January 15 at the Fireside Restaurant in Minden.

Lots of ways to bring in the New Year this year. You can go to one of the many local lodges or restaurants or see 1986 come in at the Stanhope Firefighters dance from 8:30 p.m. December 31 or join the Minden Rotary Club in their farewell to '85 at the Minden Community Centre. Whichever way you do it - let is be happy and safe.

If you have any items of news you wish passed on, please call Jeanne Sears at 286-1538 or The Times at 286-1288.

Dear Readers:
This will be the last column before Christmas so I'd better get at it. Christmas as it always does, seems to have come upon us quickly.

Mrs. Pearl Lyle had her grandson Eddy Wilkinson to visit her Sunday and he brought her two good books, one "Over the Counter" all about old time country stores, Doris is reading aloud to us and we are enjoying it very much.

The young group of Minden UCW came Monday night and sang many carols to us. They have about 30 members in their group.

Rev. Westhaver came and took chapel service on Tuesday morning with Mr. Fred Ballard playing the organ. Doris showed us movies Tuesday afternoon "The Pony" and "Christmas Lore" - both very interesting.

Shirley and Murray Davis and Gordon Houghton came and played and sang for us Tuesday evening. They are so good and we all enjoy and look forward to them coming.

Mrs. Edith Welch had the misfortune to fall in her room and has been down in Minden hospital, badly bruised but nothing broken. We wish her well and hope she will soon be back at Hyland Crest.

We have a new resident in the person of Mrs. May Wright, a long time resident of Minden. We hope she improves in health and

Wednesday we had a Christmas dinner for residents and staff in the auditorium, turkey, ham, potatoes, asparagus, carrots and all the trimmings. Wine, Christmas pudding, mince-meat pie and Christmas cake, just everything and the tables decorated so nicely. This was so the folks who go out with their families wouldn't miss Hyland Crest's dinner. Santa came after and gave out gifts. Santa is still very overweight in some places but seemed in the best of health and spirits. Guess a little fat doesn't really hurt, as Santa must be quite old too! We thank all who went to extra work to give us this lovely dinner.

Thursday the ladies of the Auxiliary brought in a lovely tea which they served to us. Warren and Susan Payne and Larry McKnight came and called and helped with the bingo, Amanda and Adam Payne who came with their parents seemed to enjoy it very much too.

I would like to thank Jack Brezina and everyone at The Times for the lovely pointsettia which they sent me. It is really beautiful and I appreciate their thoughtfulness very much.

The residents here at Hyland Crest wish everyone a Happy and Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.

We ought to consider the "ifs" now and then. Thinking about "if" prepares us for the "when."

Take care, 'bye till next week.

Hi Kids!

Here is another puzzle for you with a word list. Look in the diagram of letters for the words given in the list. Find them by reading up, down, forward, backward and diagonally. They are all in a straight line and do not skip letters. Circle the words in the diagram and cross it off in the list.

It's as easy as that. Have fun!
